Guiding Riley's Many Activities

Riley Wildcats, we want to introduce Franz and Inge, members of your adopted Austrian schools. Willie Wildcat will guide them through the pages of The Hoosier Poet to show them Riley's school program.

FRANZ AND INGE, we want to take you through the Riley year of 1947-1948 and show you the typical happenings in each of the various seasons during the year.

To begin with, before school officially opens in fall we find our principal, assistant principal and head counselor busy with preparations for the school semesters.

Pictured at the top is the man behind Riley's wheel, Principal Glenn S. Kropf. He has been the principal since 1934 when he succeeded Mr. H. G. Imel. Principal Kropf received his B.A. degree from Goshen College, Goshen, Indiana and his M.A. from the University of Chicago.

Mr. Hubert H. Ogden, our assistant principal, is shown in the lower picture on the left. With Mr. Ogden is Mr. Lawrence T. Pate, head counselor, both appearing in their onter office.

Keeping check of the student body is Mr. Ogden's job while Mr. Pate helps the students select subjects to plan for a career.

After obtaining his B.A. degree from Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana, Mr. Ogden worked for his M.A. at Columbia University, New York. He also attended the University of Michigan and Indiana University.

Mr. Pate received his B.A. degree from Wabash College, Wabash, Indiana and his M.A. from the University of Wisconsin.

Faculty Receiving Final Instructions

BEFORE ALL THE Riley students come to school to register, the faculty meets with Principal Kropf in the library. At this meeting announcements are made for the coming year.

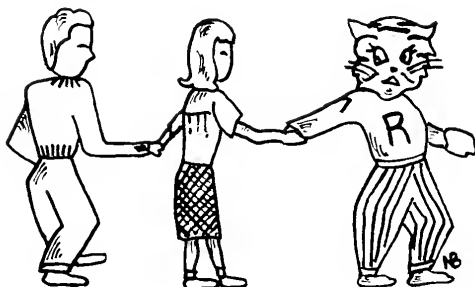

In greeting the faculty in the fall, Mr. Kropf sets the friendly pace for the year by mixing a bit of fun with the serious business of getting the school started. The interested smiling faces of the faculty members indicate that they are facing the new year with enthusiasm.

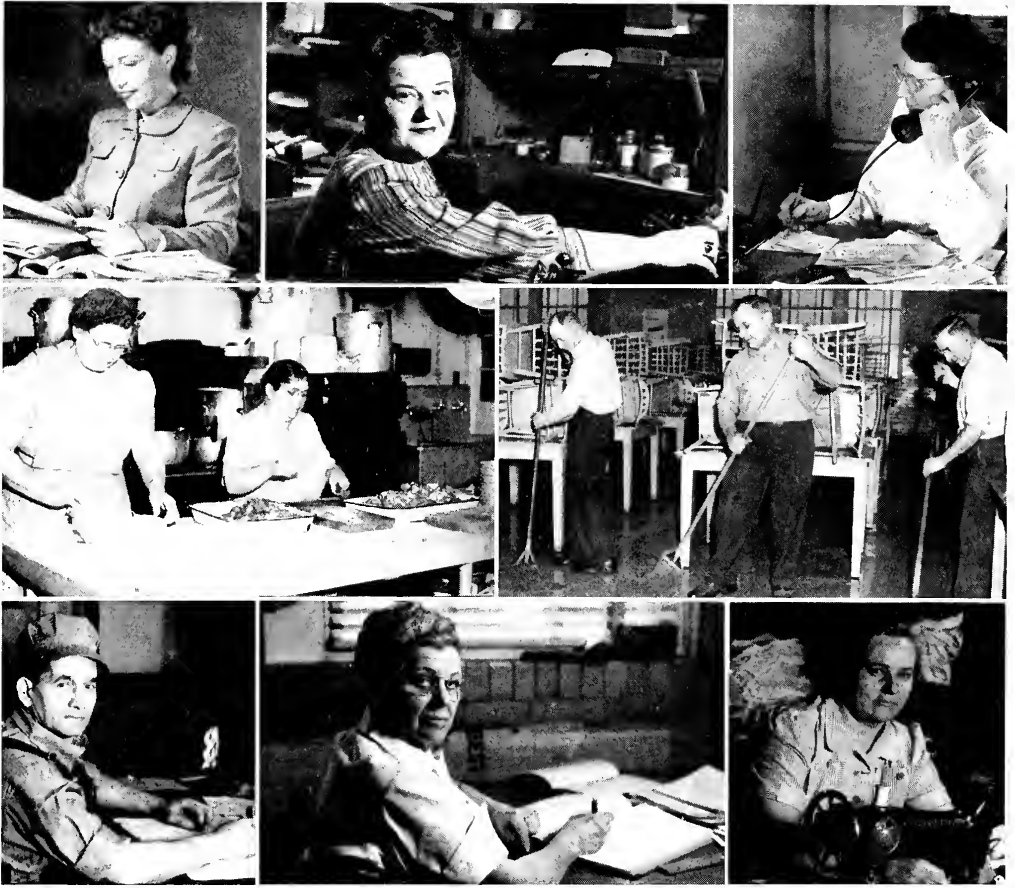

The newest topic discussed was the shorter noon period. In keeping with other South Bend high schools, Riley's noon hour was shortened ten minutes to allow longer class periods.

After these meetings the teachers start preparing assignments for their classes. In the home rooms, program cards and fee cards must be handled.

All this preparation is done in order to make fewer complications when the students begin their first day.

Franz and Inge, you are probably anxious to meet other students and faculty members, so let us go on and see how a typical American high school operates its program.

Putting the Wheels in Motion

In the second row of pictures on the left are two women who prepare the meals for the school cafeteria. On the right, the janitors mop the cafeteria floor every morning in order to keep it a sanitary place for students.

The bottom row of pictures shows Mr. Walter Clark, the chief engineer. Holding the keys to the entire building, he also supervises all custodial service. In the center we find Miss Grace Marshall. Under her direction we are able to enjoy those delicious meals that are typical of Riley's cafeteria. She has a great problem feeding the many students and also a problem of finding space to seat the over-flowing crowd. At the far right is Mrs. Elodia Youngs, the laundress. Through her the energetic athletic students are supplied with clean gym suits and towels each day for physical education classes.

Student Council Engineers Pep Rally

RILEY'S STUDENT COUNCIL packed the packages for you and your fellow Austrians and in early autumn sponsored the Riley-Washington pep session.

The pictures below show phases of the pep rally with Washington. On the left in the top row is Carol Anderson, council president, and her committee that planned the affair. On the right in the convertible is the queen and her court before starting the parade to Walker Park.

On the right at the bottom is Queen Lois Talarico being escorted by Bob Laven, senior president, as she exchanges bouquets with Washington's queen of football.

Senior Band Rehearses for Grid Season . . .

MANY MORNINGS AND EVENINGS, especially during the football season, the resounding notes of the band wing their way to your ears. This year the band began its rehearsals early as they were making a trip to Chicago on the day of registration.

With new members added, the band marched up and down the Riley bowl practicing turns and trying to keep straight lines. At Chicago the band paraded about the amusement park, Riverview, and afterwards enjoyed some rides.

Upon returning to school the members found a new music room in the making. The former rooms, 104 and 105, had been combined. In the picture at the top of the page the band is shown rehearsing in its new room.

Dick Barnes, drum major, led the marching band through all of its routines for the season on School Field. Usually the routines began by forming a letter for the opposing school and playing their school song, and ended with the letter "R" and the Riley school song, "Stand Up and Cheer!"

The only other trip this organization made out of town was to Elkhart for the football game. The band also marched for the Riley-Washington pep session. It is shown below in the left hand corner as it paraded down the streets to Walker Park.

After the football season, the band started to rehearse for its concert season. This year instead of combined concerts with the Junior Band and Orchestra, each gave its own concert. Pictured at the top of the next page is the uniformed band in concert seating arrangement.

The Senior Band's first concert on January 23 had on its program overtures and marches. The featured soloist was Katherine Lehman, who played "Concertino" by Weber on her clarinet. Also, a cornet trio was on the program with Roger Gerkin, Don Beyer, and Jack Farrell playing "The Three Trumpeters" by Agostini.

At the spring concert on May 6, Marilyn Anderson on her accordion performed "Accordion To Hoyle" by Bennett. The band also at this time played a concert before the Adams student body while the Adams band returned the visit before Riley students.

... and Plays for Various Concerts

Besides participating in the All-City Band last fall, which was made up of musicians from South Bend's four high schools, the band performed for the spring music festival.

Mr. William E. Richardson, the band director, added the challenging system and sectional rehearsals to the band's training program. The business was carried on by the officers who are pictured below on the right. Left to right are: Diane Crispin, secretary; Katherine Lehman, treasurer; Barbara Scheidegger, librarian; Mr. Richardson; Don Beyer, vice-president; Marilyn Anderson, librarian; and seated is Roger Gerkin, president.

Their duties vary from checking points for attendance to maintaining discipline among the band members during rehearsal.

In alphabetical order the personnel for each section is as follows:

Hi-Y Active in Social Calendar

ONE ORGANIZATION which gave its assistance to the football team during the fall season was the Riley Hi-Y pictured above. By sponsoring the hats, blankets, pencils, and pins, they added the beautiful purple and gold colors to all activities.

In order to become a member of this organization all the boys must be at least a sophomore and have a "C" average.

Under their sponsor, Mr. Wilbur Campbell, the club is always working toward a goal. The Hi-Y assisted in the community's March of Dimes Drive by conducting the drive among Riley's students.

Bill Zimmer was chairman of the campaign for the sale of new Rex lead pencils.

The Hi-Y doesn't spend all of its time advertising the sport season. Other activities and social affairs are also sponsored.

With the aid of slides, the Hi-Y presented a religious assembly in early fall. Various members spoke and recited poetry describing a typical American boy.

For fun and yet for a worthy cause, the March of Dimes, the Hi-Y members played members of the faculty in a basketball game, with $\frac{1}{8}$, $\frac{1}{4}$ and almost anything recorded for scores. However, the boys won by 26-18.

Near the close of the month of February the members entertained the varsity basketball team and members from various other activities. The toastmaster was Jerry Parker, the newly elected president of Hi-Y.

Retiring officers are: Bill Zimmer, president; Cecil Hawkins, vice-president; Dale Toney, secretary; Bill Traver, treasurer; Dick Cira, chaplain; and Ray Bieber, sergeant-at-arms.

Assisting Jerry in his new office are Larry Cutner, vice-president; Ken Clarke, secretary; Lowell Thielke, treasurer; Wayne Ponader, chaplain, and Pete Smith, sergeant-at-arms.

Besides the Annual Swingheart Sway in February the Hi-Y also attended a conference at Mishawaka in April.

Ending a most successful year, the organization closed with an impressive Easter assembly.

Spirit of Football . . . Autumn

WHEN THE AIR IS FILLED with sharp shouts and the thud of hard-driving athletes, one immediately thinks of the King of fall sports — Football.

At Riley, under the direction of their colorful coach, Paul (Spike) Kelly, the Riley Wildcat eleven won six contests while dropping three, finishing third in the N.E.I.H.S.C. behind Washington and LaPorte high schools.

RILEY, 13; LINTON, 7. A green but powerful Riley eleven traveled to Linton for their opening game of the '47 season and pounded a smaller Linton squad 13-7. Fullback Pete Smith and signal caller Steve Voynovich got the points for the Wildcats.

MISHAWAKA, 14; RILEY, 0. Without the services of their quarter-back and co-captain, Steve Voynovich, who broke his leg in practice, the Riley Cats were completely lost as the mighty Cavemen trounced them 14-0 in a N.I.H.S. game.

RILEY, 8; LAPORTE, 0. The 1946 Conference Champions were no match for a much spirited Riley team as the Cats dullied the Slicer machine, 8-0.

Superior line play spelled the margin of victory, Bill Duffy, Wayne Hoover and Joe Horvath especially standing out. Smith scored for Riley.

RILEY, 20; ADAMS, 6. A previously undefeated Adams team was put down by an overwhelming Riley passing attack led by Joe Gerschoffer. Passes in the first half to Joe Horvath and halfback Fred Cherone completely clipped the Eagles' tailfeathers. In the second half, halfback Jim Whitmer romped 53 yards for the run of the evening.

ELKHART, 13; RILEY, 0. Completely stopping the vaunted Riley passing attack, a spirited Elkhart aggregation stomped on the Wildcats' tail to the tune of 13-0. At the end of the season the Riley Varsity voted Elkhart their toughest opponent of the '47 gridiron season.

Coaches Map Season's Plans

WASHINGTON, 26; RILEY, 6. Led by veteran half-back Bobby Robertson the Washington Panthers blitzed an inferior Riley opponent 26-6. Robertson tore up the Riley line for three touchdowns to spell the margin of defeat. Quarterback Don Carpenter tallied for Riley.

RILEY, 39; NORTH SIDE (Ft. Wayne), 7. Bouncing back from their previous defeat, Paul Kelly's rugged squad punched over six touchdowns to wallop North Side's Redskins, 39-7. Even center Ernie Nagy scored on an interception as Riley's Toth, Gerschoffer, Cherone and Smith counted for the Cats.

RILEY, 25; MICHIGAN CITY, 0. The big arm of Joe Gerschoffer spelled defeat for the invading Red Devils as halfback Joe completed 15 out of 19 throws for three touchdowns. The line play of Dick Cira, John Nafrady and Steve Hedl struck the invaders for many losses.

RILEY, 31; CENTRAL, 9. Ending a successful season at the hands of their traditional city rival, the Riley Wildcats annihilated the burly Bruins, 31-9. In every department the Wildcats stood out, showing everyone that they had improved through their season. Gerschoffer, Whitmer, Toth, Carpenter, Hedl, Horvath, Nafrady, Cira, Nagy, Hoover, Duffy and Soos as seniors wrote their names on the list of Riley's outstanding 1947-1948 football team.

RILEY'S DAUNTLESS KITTENS again brought honor upon themselves in this 1947 season. They stacked up a three win, one loss and one tie record plus a share of the conference title with the Adams reserve squad.

Veteran B Team mentor, lean Greg Parker, boosted a fast scrappy bunch that was rough and ready for any foe regardless of size or previous record. Little Roger Winter, junior halfback, led the touchdown parade with eight for a 48 point total.

The Kittens' lone set-back was at the hands of a powerful Washington squad in a 7-6 game that could have gone either way. The only tie ball game that Coach Parker and his teams have had in over five years of Riley coaching resulted as Adams knotted the count 7-7.

COACH BERT ANSON's tennis boys led by Don Beyer and Stuart Hansen did their best in the 1947 season.

FINALLY THE DAY arrived for registration. Probably the most anxious to begin were the new eighth graders who were to make up the class of 1952 at Riley High School.

This was their first year at Riley and all were glad to get acquainted with new classmates and get the feel of high school life.

All new students registering in the afternoon were greeted by Principal Kropf. The picture at the lower right shows the principal addressing the newcomers in the auditorium.

At first it was confusing to learn all the new room numbers and where they are located.

AFTER GETTING ACQUAINTED, the class members conducted an election to choose leaders for the year. Dick Sult was chosen for the office of president. Bob Driggs followed as the selection for vice-president. Elected as secretary was Sally Wiebush, while Sandra Hause and Eugene Searfoss filled the offices of social chairman and treasurer.

Elected as class sponsor was Mr. Woodard. Other eighth grade home room teachers are Mr. Mock, Mr. Meyer, Miss Sellars, Miss Whitehead and Miss Rohrer. These teachers helped to guide the newcomers so that they would become adjusted to the new school.

The first party held by the class was given on December 11. Sandra Hause, class social chairman, served as head of the entertainment committee. Other heads of committees responsible for this mixer party were: Richard Moore, etiquette; Alan Davis, finance; Marlene Suran, arrangements; Joan Nafe, invitations; and Nancy Jones, refreshments.

ENROLLMENT IN THE CLASS of 1950 increased as school opened with more sophomores being added to the group. Lincoln and Oliver Junior High Schools were responsible for sending these new students. From other parts of South Bend and from different states, new students also came.

As a body, the class first elected their officers for the year. Lloyd Hillring filled the position of president, while assisting him were Steve Herczeg, vice-president, Jane Gafill, secretary, Bob Crocker, treasurer, and Larry Cutner, social chairman.

The first important task for the class officers was to draw a constitution designed to suit the needs of their class. Steve Herczeg and Jane Gafill took charge with the aid of a committee in writing the important document.

As the class enlarged, more home rooms had to be added, with students being redistributed among the rooms in alphabetical order. Sometimes they retained the same home room that they had in the eighth and ninth grades, but often members were moved into a new classroom.

Teachers in charge of sophomore home rooms are Miss Kitson, Miss Frueh, Mr. Bonham, Mr. Horn, Mr. Campbell, Miss Moss, Mr. Koch, Miss Wyrick, Miss VanBuskirk, Miss Day and Mr. Schubert. Along with the selection of the sophomore officers, the class elected Mr. Wilbur Campbell as their class sponsor.

The brief period used as home room each morning helped students to get their "bearings" before attending their course of study for the day.

ATTRACTIVE POSTERS ANNOUNCED the coming of the first social dance planned by the Sophomore Class. As a result many students turned out for the highly publicized dance. All styles and colors of sweaters were worn in order to stay in keeping with the adopted title, "Sweater Swirl."

A dance of just this sort helps to bring about new acquaintances among the classmates.

The social chairman took charge of this gathering, with the president, vice-president, and treasurer taking care of the committees for checking, tickets, and publicity.

Decorations were planned by Norma Denny and her committee. Invitations and entertainment were taken care of by Ruth Caussemaker and Charles Vice.

Dorothy Krusinski's committee was responsible for the juke box supplying the music, while Jo Ann Peterman had refreshments on hand. After everyone left, Don Claro with his clean-up committee took over.

Current fads, popular during the fall semester, became common among the Sophomores as almost everyone strung a yo-yo upon his finger. New additions soon came into the classrooms, as the girls bought the toy wildcats sold by the cheerleaders and brought them along to class.

However, the hours became more occupied as these students, in their first year of senior high school, started to take an active part in all the available activities.

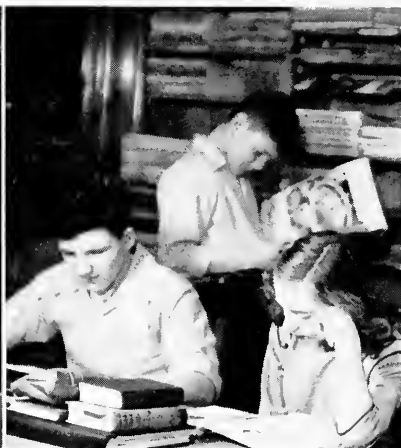

With the courses becoming more difficult and with longer assignments, the leisure hours became less frequent. As the program cards provided for elective subjects, students started branching out into the various fields they had decided upon for their majors.

Storehouse of Available Knowledge

THE UNIVERSAL LABORATORY of our school is the library. For the individual and for the group, the library serves pupils, teachers and administrators with books, magazines, pamphlets, clippings, newspapers, pictures, maps and atlases, reference materials and illustrative materials. The library provides for the students the necessary tools to seek out the facts upon which to base intelligent judgments.

It affords many opportunities for acquiring new knowledge and making new discoveries through the medium of books. With the help of the librarians and the student library assistants, available materials and references at hand, and the environment for study, the library is able to bring forth the best efforts of the students.

In the picture above, left to right, are Miss Naomi Pehrson, Miss Myrtle Moberg and Miss Lois Josephson. Miss Josephson, the librarian, has a B.A. degree from St. Mary's College and an M.A. from Indiana. She is at the present time working for a Ph.D. at Columbia University.

Assisting the librarian are Miss Pehrson and Miss Moberg. Miss Pehrson has a B.S. degree from Michigan State Normal College and an M.A. from Columbia University. She has one class in Business Education this semester and also teaches night classes at the Indiana Extension Center.

Miss Moberg, after attending Manchester College, obtained her B.A. degree from Indiana University. She is also teaching some English courses.

At the upper right, students are studying in the magazine room, which is a small enclosed room on the north side of the main reading room.

Student library staff members find a full day's work in helping the librarians keep books straight on the shelves, checking out books, checking in books, handling magazines and working at library desks. The staff is made up of twenty-seven workers, and everyone completing six semesters in the library earns a monogram.

On the magazine subscription list are seventy-five magazines. The library houses 8,000 books.

The Arts of Cooking and Sewing

RILEY'S HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT has as its goal the development of individuals capable of shaping for themselves a satisfying personal, home and community life. It also emphasizes the ability to cooperate in a satisfactory manner with larger social groups in the community.

A general objective is to help students improve everyday living by guiding them in developing competent thought and action for making decisions concerning current personal and home living problems.

Courses offered in Home Economics provide experience in many phases of homemaking activities which will increase knowledge, develop skills and techniques, establish attitudes, ideals and values fundamental to fine family and community life.

Among the courses offered at Riley are Homemaking in the eighth grade with more advanced work in the ninth grade. Foods I and II are offered along with Nutrition and Home Management. The clothing division includes Clothing I, II, III, and Fine Sewing.

In the bottom picture on the left is Miss Martha Frueh, shown helping her students learn the fine art of sewing. Miss Frueh received her B.S. degree from Purdue University and her M.A. from the University of Michigan. She has also attended the University of Minnesota.

Miss Sellars obtained her B.S. degree from Purdue University and her M.A. from Teachers' College, Columbia University. Other schools she has attended are Earlham College, Indiana University and Indiana State Teachers' College.

Miss Jean McAlpine, at the top of the page, is shown looking on as her students demonstrate a properly arranged table and exemplify good table manners. Being a graduate dietitian, Miss McAlpine received her B.S. degree from Milwaukee-Downer College. She has also done graduate work at Wisconsin and Columbia universities.

English Fundamentals . . .

GRAMMAR, LITERATURE, SPEECH, AND COMPOSITION on various levels follow the state's authorized course of study and are taught from English I through English VI. A general course is taught in the eighth grade classes. The Freshmen study "Treasure Island" by Stevenson in the first semester and "Ivanhoe" by Scott or "David Copperfield" by Dickens in the last semester in addition to grammar.

In the second year of high school English, the class studies an anthology of poetry, "Silas Marner" by Eliot, and more grammar. The last semester deals with "Tale of Two Cities" by Dickens, speech and one act plays.

Juniors make a study of short stories, "Idylls of the King" by Tennyson, "House of Seven Gables" by Hawthorne, and rhetoric. Finishing their last semester, the students learn appreciation of poetry, essays, and drama as represented in "Macbeth" by Shakespeare.

The fourth year of English is elective. Two semesters are offered in the study of English Literature, while an additional semester is offered in the study of Creative Writing.

Counselors Aid in Planning Careers

Guidance classes are held once a week through each semester during the sophomore year. After that, Guidance is given only in the fall semester once a week.

In the eighth grade, students begin to make a study of the various occupations in different fields, with Miss Violet E. Rohrer as their counselor. Miss Rohrer, shown below in the center, has attended Indiana University and obtained her B.A. degree from Western Michigan College.

Under Mr. Pate, the Freshmen continue a more detailed study of occupations. In the last semester, students choose their favored field, make a thorough study of it, and record their findings in an original career book. Through extensive reading the advantages and disadvantages of fields of work are learned. Students sometimes revise their programs in the following years of Guidance.

Teaching tenth grade Guidance is Mr. Ernest Horn, who is shown in the top right-hand picture. He has a B.A. degree from Indiana State Teachers' College and an M.S. from Indiana University.

Health

HEALTH CLASSES TEACH the parts of the body and their functions. Students receive ideas and suggestions on how to live a more healthful life. As part of the course, they make notebooks covering the material learned during the semester and also keep calorie and food charts. Health Education is taught by Miss Katherine Dennis, shown at the top on the left. Miss Dennis has a Ph.B degree from the University of Chicago, besides attending Columbia University, Purdue University and Indiana State Normal College.

Drama Club Enacts Broadway Hit

Humorous confusion develops when Miriam writes to a certain Lieutenant William Seawright (Bud Hawkins), signing the name of her sister Ruth (Carol Anderson). Ruth is unofficially engaged to Albert Kummer (Norman Jannasch), who is shown in the center of the top right picture. Entanglements are added by Martha Seawright (Jane Gaffill) and Sergeant Vincent (Tom Barnhart), who are shown beside Albert.

All ends happily for Martha and the Sergeant, as shown below in their wedding, but Bill and Ruth struggle over more obstacles before they are finally married by Ruth's father. Below they are shown as they leave for Bill's camp.

Nan MacCracken alternated with Francis McCaughan as Miriam. Lowell Thielke was also cast as Sergeant Vincent. Leon Budny proved to be another serviceman whom Miriam had written to using Ruth's name.

Christmas Assembly

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT filled the air as the Student Council erected a huge Yuletide tree.

The gay holiday spirit was climaxed on the day before Christmas vacation when the combined efforts of the Glee Club under Miss Barbara Kantzer and Miss Elizabeth Whitehead, and the Drama Club under Mr. James Lewis Casaday, produced the annual Christmas Assembly.

The annual Christmas program opened with the Glee Club bearing candles as the members marched down the center of the auditorium onto the stage singing "Gloria." Members of the Glee Club divided upon the stage, making a frame for the tiny centered platform as the Drama Club members formed Christmas picture cards which were representative of the songs interpreted by the vocalists. Pictured at the bottom of the page is the group while performing "Christ of the Snow."

December Brings Orchestra Concert

AN ENLARGED ORCHESTRA from previous years greeted its audience on its first concert of the year. The girls in the organization for the first time were attired in white blouses, black ties and long black skirts, while the boys wore tuxedos.

Featured as soloist for this concert was Charlotte Kaysen as she performed Monti's "Czardas" on her violin. Also on the program were a Christmas medley and several selections arranged by Merle Isaacs.

In the spring concert JoAnne Gardner appeared as piano soloist, playing Rubinstein's Fourth Piano Concerto. She is pictured above on the concert stage with the orchestra. Among the other numbers were "Slavonic Dance" by Balikov and "La Cinquantaine" by Gabriel-Marie.

Besides the two concerts for the year, the orchestra also took part in the All-City Orchestra, North Central Orchestra and Music Festival.

To JUNIORS the year meant football, new classes, clubs, basketball, spring sports and those things which usually constitute most of the life of a high school student. This year was high-lighted by "Santa's Prance," a class party held on December 12. Lois Hoover, class social chairman, was general chairman and worked with many diligent committees to make the party a success. The faculty and guests received their invitations from Grayce Raines and the invitation and reception committee was under Miss Grace Lushbaugh's supervision. When the guests entered the gym, an artistically decorated forest-like scene met the eye. The pine branches were sprinkled with "snow" which gave a real outdoor effect. Alice Williams was in charge of the decorating committee and was assisted by Mr. Lionel Martin's careful advice.

Refreshments of ice cream and orange juice were served with the help of Miss Elizabeth Noble and Kathryn Forrester and her committee. Music from a juke box entertained the guests and this committee was headed by Suzanne Schwind.

Santa made his entrance to the gym on a putt-putt and after greeting everybody with a hearty "hello," announced Jim's number. There seemed to be something magic about Jim's trumpet, for it played even after it was laid in the case. Then Santa gave humorous gifts to some of the faculty and the officers of this large class. Mr. Clans gave door prizes to the members of the class who held the lucky numbers. Then he mingled with the crowd in dancing and calling out "Cheerio!" to everyone. But when 11 o'clock arrived, he jumped on his putt-putt and after the usual "Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night," he swiftly pushed himself away.

Praise goes to Bob Pamachena and Mr. Charles Hafron in charge of the ticket and finance committee for the careful handling of the tickets and money. For the big crowd that attended this pre-Christmas dance for Juniors and Seniors, thanks can be given to Irene Botchkai, the publicity committee and Mr. Forrest Marsh. After this fun-packed party, everyone went home except those who had the job which no one wants—clean-up. The work was done with a smile by Gene Rothballer and his committee under the guidance of Mr. Russell Rhodes.

Class of '49

ON SEPTEMBER EIGHTH the Class of '49 began their third enjoyable year of high school. The '49'ers wouldn't have had as successful a year had it not been for the guidance of their helpful home room teachers, Miss Katherine Dennis, Mr. Russell Rhodes, Miss Elizabeth Murphy, Miss Elizabeth Noble, Mr. Earl Webb, Miss Marie Shively, Mr. Lionel Martin, Mr. Charles Hafroun, Mr. Forrest Marsh, Miss Genevieve Hopkins and Miss Grace Lushbaugh. This class has been active in school affairs with the help of these teachers and the following officers: Pete Ranick, president; Bob Pamachena, vice-president; Bob Mahowald, treasurer; Janet Gaylor, secretary; and Lois Hoover, social chairman.

During the sophomore year the '49 group drew up a constitution which has been followed and will be followed the remainder of the high school life of this class. It states how officers are to be elected and who can be officers. The procedure of meetings is explained. The various committees are listed and what shall be the duties of each. The constitution was ratified on the thirteenth of November in 1946. The constitution was written by a committee with Jim Axelburg as chairman. The committee members were Pete Ranick, Ann Stookey, Nancy Berg, Jeanne Rosburgh and Marjorie Bowers.

Also in their sophomore year, this class elected Mr. Webb as the head sponsor to lead them through the remainder of the three years. He has proved to be a helpful advisor.

In Miss Hopkins' room Gilbert Corridan received this award, in Mr. Martin's room, Dixie Betz, and in Mr. Webb's room, Mary Jean Gharst. Class of '51 Climbs Riley's . . .

The "Freshman Frisk," the class party, was considered successful from the attendance and entertainment viewpoints. The room social chairmen and Miss Bertha Kiel, Riley's Social Chairman, helped the home room teachers for the ninth grade students in planning and carrying out the party plans.

Class officers who were responsible for getting the wheels started for the party were: President Mark McCoy (who in addition to leading the Freshman class wears a sweater which he won as a member of Riley's cross country team), Vice-President James Bradfield (also one of Riley's "sportsters"), Secretary Pat Freel and Treasurer George Lambert. The boys came from Monroe while Pat came from Centre Township.

Fifty freshman students compiled enough points on their report cards to allow them to be listed on the semester honor roll. Room 322 had nine students on the list. Marilyn Gadglak of 107, Fredric Burgh of 109, Paul Steele and Barbara Volkman of 113, Bruce Lewis, Loretta Marsh, Nancy Myers of 216 were straight "A" students, each with 16 points or more on his or her report card.

This year's winners of the 9th grade citizenship award were Mark McCoy and Muriel Keiser. Mark, who also serves as class president, is well known throughout Riley halls and always has a welcoming smile on his face. This winner of the D. A. R. medal is in Mr. Koch's room, 301. On the feminine side is room 216's member, Muriel Keiser. Both Muriel and Mark had unanimous backing.

Class of '51

LED BY CAPTAIN AL ZIMMER and Coach Alton B. Meyer, the Riley freshman football team totaled a near .500 season percentage. Letter winners include J. Altic, K. Weesner, M. Weigand, J. Odor, O. Walters, D. Edwards, J. Bradfield, A. Zimmer, G. Lambert, E. Miller, B. Weber, J. Ewing, J. Lakovits, M. Harrison, D. Snodgrass, E. Motts, B. Nicodemus and B. Holtzapple.

On the hardwood courts, the "C" Cats showed more power and experience. Receiving only two set-backs during the regular season, the Woodard-coached boys overtook Jefferson, Numer, Madison and Lincoln twice in succession. They rolled up 263 points to their opponents' 165. A victory percentage of .886 was scored in 15 games by winning 13 and losing 2. The boys went on to win the City Junior High School Championship.

"Paddy's Jig," a dance given by the French Club and the Anti-T. B. League, was successful. Betty Scott, a freshman and member of the French Club, was in charge of the sale of tickets. She was assisted by Louise Patterson, also a member of the Freshman Class.

Next year, as Sophomores, the Class of '51 will again climb higher on the school ladder and will be working for superiority in studies as well as extracurricular activities. They will take a new place in life, for as "Sophs" they will be considered a part of senior school life, thus being eligible for Senior Drama Club, varsity athletic teams and other senior activities.

Publishing the Hi-Times

At the right in the top picture is Mr. George Koeh, who snaps pictures for the paper, as he leaves school to take film to be developed.

Drawing dummies, writing headlines, doing paste-up, selling ads, balancing books, collecting money and folding papers are just a few of the typical acts performed each week by aspiring young journalists in order to produce a high school paper.

Band and Club Support Varsity Squad

THE JUNIOR BAND and the Quarterback Club helped to promote interest in the basketball season. During several of the home games, the Junior Band provided music before the varsity game and during the intermission. Pictured is the Junior Band on the stage at John Adams ready for entertaining the basketball crowd.

Although the Quarterback Club was originally designed to back football, it is now just as strong behind the basketball team and other sports. Pictured below the Junior Band, this club is shown at one of its monthly meetings.

Officers of the Quarterback Club are: President J. S. Laughlin, Vice-President Jerry Overholser, Secretary Fred Fiedler and Treasurer John Davis. Each year the Annual Football Banquet and Dad's Night are sponsored by this group. The objectives of the club are to further sportsmanship, promote interest in sports and provide facilities for all sports in the Riley community.

The Junior Band under the direction of Mr. William E. Richardson not only plays for basketball games but made its first appearance of the year on the gridiron. This group made formations with the Senior Band. With the football season hardly past, this young organization prepared a concert to be held on November 14. Then with the basketball season on the wane, the group again presented a concert.

Basketball Madness Hits Riley

AT RILEY HIGH it's school hysteria. The wonderful reason is that anytime, anywhere, basketball is in high gear during the season for this loved sport of Indiana. Students, fans and faculty turn out "en masse" to see their team play—win or lose. In Hoosierland the hardwood season means fun, speed and thrills from November 1 till March 20.

Giving inspiration to the team are the ever-active cheerleaders. Lots of pep and steam are given off in the typical Wildeat yells along with a few new yells added this season.

At Riley (especially since a Wildeat squad went to the final game of the I. H. S. Tourney in 1945) interest has grown to a keen point. Regardless of slippery road and freezing weather those sport loving fans are ready to yell their lungs out for that Wildeat team.

In the past two years, Riley fans weren't blessed with the outstanding teams turned out in previous years, but it made little difference as support was given on every occasion.

Students go not only to view the classic but for the good fellowship and friendship that they seem to enjoy.

This year Coach Wayne Wakefield is to be congratulated for his fine work in bringing along a new and inexperienced varsity squad. Captain Lora Overholser, Bill Stout and Andy Hays were the three returning lettermen. These boys along with Jim Whitmer and Sophomore Jim Krider, made up the first five in the latter part of the season.

The Cats really didn't hit their stride until late in the season when Whitmer and Krider were moved into the line-up. After this point in the schedule, a definite change came over the quintet. With a smashing 41 to 31 upset over Michigan City, the Cats won the remaining five games, except for the 44 to 43 defeat by the John Adams five. It was said by Riley fans that if this five could have had just five more games to establish themselves they might have won the sectional.

Hardwood Schedule is Rough

RILEY OPENS THE SEASON. Riley's first foe of the 1947-48 season was South Bend Washington who fell to the Cats 37 to 30 with the Cats not having much trouble. Could this be the year? Maybe not, as visiting George Rogers Clark humbled the Riley five 57 to 42 with their blistering fast break style of game. Bill Stout, who teamed with Overholser, Hays, Bob Laven and Ernie Nagy to form the Cat five, got 19 points in these two games.

LOSE ONE; WIN ANOTHER. Riley's arch rival, John Adams, for the fourth time in three years spelled defeat for the Purple and Gold by trouncing them

Riley was host for the Holiday Tourney at Adams and really laid down the welcome mat by losing to previously undefeated Central Ft. Wayne 60 to 39, and to the Cavemen 46 to 37. Ft. Wayne North Side won the tourney by whipping Central 40 to 38 in a night game.

PANTHERS, YES! CRAWFORDSVILLE, NO! Wakefield's lads won their first conference tilt by trapping South Bend Washington 37 to 30. Crawfordsville fought their way out of a halftime deadlock and finally won 41 to 37 in one of the best games of the season.

37 to 34 in a close contest. Led by Nagy and Hays, tiny Bluffton fell to the larger Wildcats as these boys poured in 13 and 12 points respectively. The score read: Riley 44, Bluffton 34.

FIVE STRAIGHT DEFEATS. After winning two out of four of their first games, disaster struck the Wildcat camp in the form of five straight setbacks. Mishawaka handed the Rileyites their first league setback 41 to 31. Brazil, from southern Indiana, then came up this way and won easily in a sloppy contest, 47 to 25. Bill Stout got 14 points for the two contests.

YEA RO! CENTRAL! Bill Duffey and Whitmer starred as the Riley lads almost upset the highly rated South Bend Central team. Score: 45 to 42.

LAPORTE AND ELKHART. LaPorte's powerful Slicers proved too much for a smaller Riley five to the tune of 51 to 30. However, the Cats battled it out on even terms with Elkhart until the latter stages of the game. Score: 54 to 37. Overholser and Hays got 28 of Riley's points.

OVERHOLSER GETS 21 POINTS. Led by Overholser the visiting Riley five almost pulled the curtain on the once beaten Culver Indians, but lost out 53 to 48. Dick Reed of the Indians came up with 18 points. Krider and Jim Whitmer were moved into the starting line-up.

In one of those last-second ball games, South Bend Adams tripped the Cats for the fifth consecutive time, over a three-year span, 44 to 43. Riley, playing good ball for the first 40 minutes, later blew a substantial 8 point lead. With two seconds to play, Captain Overholser sank a charity toss to put the South Siders ahead 43 to 42, but Adams' Joe Howell gathered a long pass and sank an unbelievable shot

The Tigers fought gallantly but the Wildcats pushed ahead to win with the final score reading Riley 41, New Carlisle 39. Central was the next opponent in the semi-finals on Saturday afternoon. Central, however, proved superior in a thrilling contest 59 to 47. Andy Hays got eleven points in the first game and fifteen against Central to "cop" scoring laurels.

Coach Wakefield and the Cats will have to scrape the bottom of their "reserve barrel" next fall for varsity material. Only one regular, Jim Krider, remains. The Varsity subs and B Team members just as the gun fired to thrill the crowd.

THREE IN A ROW. Whitmer sank a long set-shot in the last minute to give the Cats a 37 to 36 win

COMING UP. Goshen's winless Indians fell as Jim over Rochester. With the Cats at their peak, Michigan City fell, 41 to 31. Whitmer's long set-shot again won for Riley in the last seconds, this time over North Side 36 to 35.

SECTIONAL TIME. After drawing a bye, Riley met New Carlisle for the first time of the tourney.

B and C Basketball Squads . . . Champions

CHAMPIONS ALL! — an appropriate title for both of Riley's B and C teams for the basketball season of 1947-48.

This year under the leadership of the B Team mentor, Mr. Gregory Parker, a fine bunch of sophomore and junior hopefuls worked themselves into championship form and walked off with the Junior Conference crown with a seven-win and two-loss margin. The B's also captured all laurels in their tourney held at Riley during the Christmas holidays.

A fine squad of fightin' freshmen won eight straight Eastern League games and earned the right to play Oliver for the City Championship. Without hesitation the Woodard-coached lads jumped into the tilt and captured the South Bend Junior High School throne by a 29 to 20 count. Throughout the season, these C lads were set back only twice while winning thirteen contests.

Little publicity is given to these groups but here is where the future Riley Varsity basketball teams begin to take shape.

Art in Everyday Experience . . . a Goal

DEVELOPING SELF-RELIANCE in thinking, confidence in ability to express oneself, and knowledge and feeling for order and arrangement are the objectives of Riley's Art Department.

Each person is given an opportunity to deal with the visual elements of line, form, shape, color and texture. The many subjects attempted in the art classes are design, perspective, landscape, poster, flower, figure and animal drawings.

Materials with which students may work are transparent and tempera water colors, wood, leather, paper and felt. The goal is to stimulate interest and encourage further expression and experience.

Art I and II give opportunity for variety in the art field, promoting imagination and developing skills in various mediums. The student may elect more specialized courses, such as Costume Design, Interior Decoration, Arts and Crafts, Commercial and Advanced Art. Art permeates all that takes place in school, and art teachers aim to make students aware of this fact.

The two teachers making up the department are Miss Mary Jane Day and Mrs. Flora Sanderson McQueen.

Mrs. McQueen received her B.A.E. degree from Valparaiso University. She has also attended Central Normal College, Winona Lake College, Chicago Art Institute and the University of Colorado, besides spending two summers studying outdoor painting in Ontario, Canada.

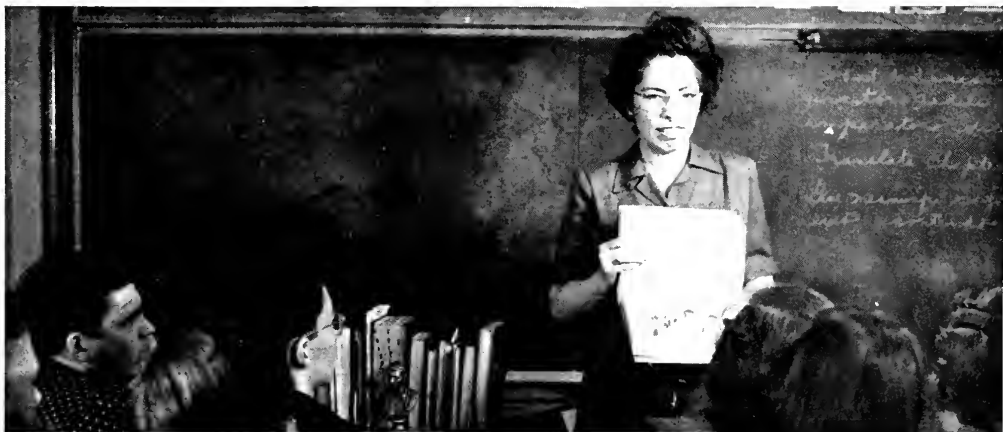

Language Offers Interesting Background

STUDENTS TAKING A FOREIGN LANGUAGE learn about the customs, civilization and history of other countries. In turn this knowledge aids in the study of the mother tongue.

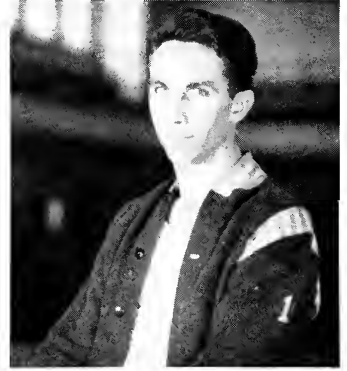

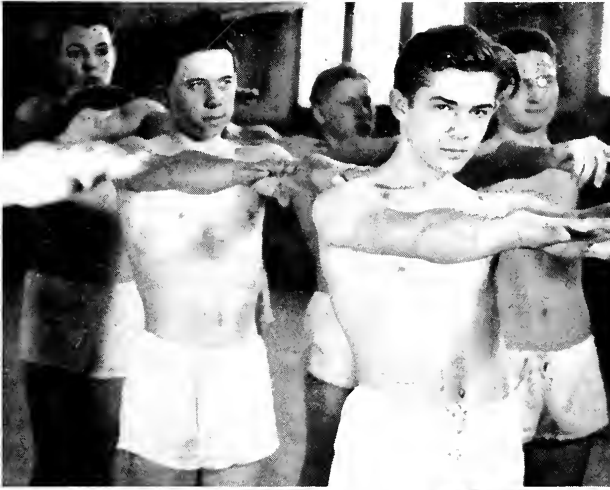

Miss Elizabeth Noble, pictured at the bottom of the page, teaches Latin to her classes. Courses in Latin are offered from I through VIII. They include the study of mythology, Roman life, Caesar and his campaigns, Cicero and his orations and Virgil's Aeneid. Latin serves as a basic language for the Romance languages. Miss Noble attended Valparaiso University and received her B.A. degree from the University of Chicago.

Shown at the upper right is Mrs. Helen Steinhauser Brokaw, instructor in Latin and Spanish. During the two years of Spanish which are offered, students learn to read, write and speak this foreign language. The course helps to create a better understanding of the Latin-American countries. Dramatizations and singing Spanish songs are also a part of the course. Mrs. Brokaw attended the universities of Minnesota and Indiana and obtained her B.A. degree from the University of Chicago. She is now working on her M.A. degree at the same university.

Besides teaching Spanish, Miss Bertha Kiel also instructs courses in French. Two years of French are offered. The students make a study of how French culture influences our own culture and civilization. The classes take part in singing French songs and in dramatizations. Emphasis is placed upon reports and occasionally a film is shown. Having received a B.A. degree from the University of Michigan, Miss Kiel did summer work at Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio and at the University of Paris, Paris, France.

Physical Education

PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLASSES provide activities for working off that extra "Steam." Calisthenics and seasonal games are on the gym program for boys and girls.

Mr. Wayne Wakefield, Physical Education director, who has been assisted by Notre Dame student teachers this year, received his B.S. degree from Indiana University.

The boys' intramural sports program which is scheduled during the noon period was directed by Mr. Harry Woodard, also a math teacher and coach.

Industrial Arts

DRILL PRESSES AND LATHES are just some of the machines students learn to operate in shop classes. Mr. Joseph R. Shafer instructs a student in the upper right picture. He received his B.S. degree from Ball State Teachers' College and his M.A. degree from Columbia University, besides attending Ohio Northern University. He is also president of The Indiana Industrial Education Association.

In the center on the left is Mr. Charles R. Bonham and on the right is Mr. F. L. Mock. Classes are taught in Wood Work and Electricity. Various kinds of articles are made in the wood-work classes, while electrical resistance and handling of current are studied in electricity classes.

Mr. Bonham attended the universities of Purdue, Indiana, and Wisconsin and received his B.S. degree from Indiana State Teachers' College. He received his M.S. degree from Indiana University.

Mr. Mock obtained his B.S. degree from Ball State Teachers' College. He also studied at the universities of Indiana and Purdue.

Before taking any shop courses, students usually take Mechanical Drawing which is taught by Mr. Earl Webb. Mr. Webb has his B.S. degree from Michigan State Normal, his B.S. of Mechanical Engineering from the University of Michigan, and his M.S. degree from Indiana University. Mr. Webb is also an extension lecturer for Purdue University.

The courses taught in the Industrial Arts Department include Wood Work, Electricity, Printing, Machine Shop and Mechanical Drawing.

The talents and abilities of the boys who study and work in the Industrial Arts courses are in ever-increasing demand in our expanding and progressing nation.

Government, History, Geography, Economics . . .

IN THE FIELD OF SOCIAL STUDIES, the faculty is especially interested in people and their relationships with one another. If we are to understand these relationships, we must first get a background of how people lived together in the past. Here history plays an important part.

However, the Social Studies does not limit itself to past events to the exclusion of present day happenings. The department hopes that by analyzing present conditions, human relationships can be understood and improved. It also aims to develop alert intelligent citizens capable of handling problems of this atomic age.

Mr. Hubert H. Ogden, assistant principal and head of the Social Studies Department, is shown at the upper left. At the right is Mr. Wilbur Campbell, while below, left to right, are Miss Janet Munro, Mr. Robert Forbes and Mr. Paul Kelly.

Mr. Ogden's scholastic record is found on the Administration page, while Miss Munro's degrees are listed on the Guidance page. Mr. Campbell received his B.A. degree from Hiram College and his M.A. from the University of Notre Dame, while Mr. Kelly obtained his B.A. degree from Upper Iowa University and his M.A. from the University of Iowa. He also attended Northwestern University.

... Subjects of Social Studies Department

Mr. Forbes attended the American Gymnoritic Union and the University of Michigan. He obtained his B.S. degree from the University of Notre Dame and M.A. from Columbia University.

Mr. Claude Wolfram and Mr. Ernest Horn are pictured above. Below, left to right, are Miss Edithe Snoke, Mr. Russell Rhodes and Mr. Bert Anson.

Mr. Horn and Mr. Rhodes are counselors and their degrees will be found on the Guidance page. After attending Valparaiso University, Mr. Wolfram received his B.A. degree from Tri-State College, his M.A. from the University of Wisconsin, and did graduate work at the University of Notre Dame.

After obtaining her B.A. degree from Indiana University, Miss Snoke worked for her M.A. at Columbia University. Mr. Anson has his B.A. degree from DePauw University.

Courses offered in the Social Studies Department vary from Eighth and Ninth Grade Social Studies to World History I and II, United States History I and II, Civics, Social Living, Economics and Global Geography.

Convincing Others

"THEREFORE, IN VIEW of the facts presented, we hope that you will concur with us, that compulsory arbitration should be adopted." Dick Leviton and Arnold Burke probably said these words in their sleep all during the 1947-48 debate season. These boys made up Coach Max Barack's affirmative team, while Jane Grimes, Elaine Lootens, Wayne Ponader and Don Natharius worked hard to make up the two teams of the negative.

The subject for the season was: "Resolved, that the Federal Government should provide compulsory arbitration of labor disputes in all basic industries."

Starting the season the debaters took a trip to Purdue University to attend the Indiana High

Making World Friends

School Debaters' Conference. Later Riley, a member of the St. Joseph Valley Debating League, debated Central, Adams, Mishawaka and LaPorte. The Sectional Tournament was held at LaPorte with Riley and Central tying for first place.

IN ORDER TO IMPROVE relations between different peoples, the East-West Club was organized at Riley under the sponsorship of Mr. H. H. Ogden. Most meetings are held in the evening. During the year many different speakers are invited to speak for the group. The guest speakers tell of their travels in different parts of the world and the experiences they encounter.

Language Opens Door to Friendships

"LOS AMIGOS DEL ESPANOL" is the legal name for Riley's Spanish Club. Sponsoring this club for eighteen years is Mrs. Helen Steinhanser Brokaw. Assisting her this year as officers were President Rosemarie Toth, Vice-President Gene Shafer, Secretary Norma Bennetts and Treasurer Maxine White.

Meetings were held after school each week on Tuesday, and once a month a party was held at the home of one of the members. Included in the plans was the trip to Chicago on Pan-American Day.

To be eligible to join, each member must either be taking or must have taken Spanish.

SINCE THE WAR, the French Club has once again become an active organization. Under the direction of Miss Bertha Kiel, the club meets every Tuesday.

The members, all girls this semester, have elected for their officers President Mary Jo Seese, Vice-President Lois Hochtcl, Secretary Barbara Hodgins, Treasurer Donna Fair and Social Chairman Norma Engdahl.

On the social calendar for the year were "Paddy's Jig," which was given with the Junior Board of the T. B. League; a trip to Chicago, where they attended a French movie and saw "Showboat;" an April Fool's Party called "Poisson d'Avril;" and a Christmas Party. The members also corresponded in French with students in France.

Organizations Offer Services . . .

UNDER THE DIRECTION of Mr. Carl Schubert, the Slide Rule Club and the Science Club have the purpose of aiding students who wish to enter the science or mathematics field after graduation.

This year the Slide Rule Club again made its appearance among the list of activities after being discontinued for some time. With Carl Bernhardt as general chairman, the club meets each week with the desire of learning the operations of the slide rule. No awards are given.

THE SCIENCE CLUB has just recently been organized. Besides making experiments in the laboratory the members devote time to a show case in which they can display their scientific projects. Their high-light for the year, was the trip taken to Notre Dame. There the atom smasher was viewed.

Officers re-elected were Bill Gleason, president, and Carl Bernhardt, vice-president. Helen Wirth filled the position of Secretary, the office previously held by Mary Jane Gharst.

... in Classrooms and Activities

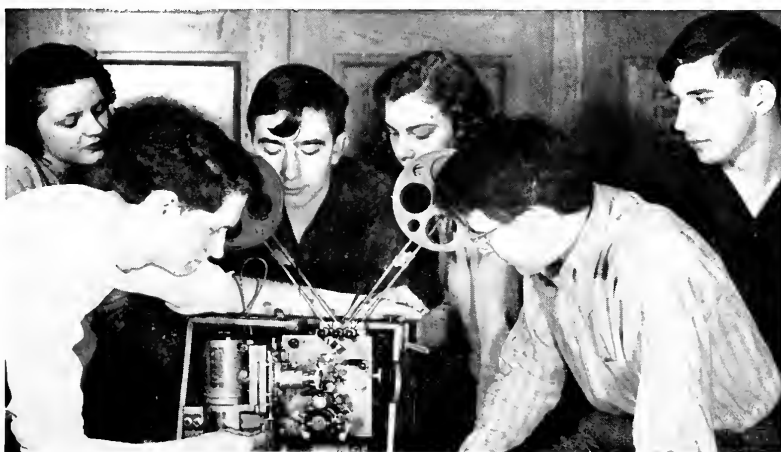

AT FOOTBALL GAMES, basketball games, concerts and drama productions it is always the Ushers Club that is on the job. Affairs could not run smoothly without the aid of this important organization. Mr. Joseph Shafer, sponsor, trains the boys for the various occasions for which they usher. Members of this organization can always be identified by their dark blue sweaters and their gold monograms. Pictured at the top of the page are the members. Officers for the year were Richard Elkins, president, and Norman Campbell, vice-president.

THE PURPOSE of the Screen Club is to assist in the presentation of audio and visual aids at Riley. Members assist in the auditorium and in presenting films for different classrooms. Presiding officers were President Eston Jupp, Vice-President Jack Harms, Secretary Shirley Riggs and Treasurer Helen Wirth. Mr. Feliks Wiatrowski was the sponsor.

Stars and Stripes Provide a Problem . . .

Student Director Alma Vukovits and her assistant, Rosemary Herczeg, together with the Senior Sponsor, Miss Edith Steele, were responsible for scheduling and making the rehearsals run smoothly.

Centering the theme were three designers as they were attempting to create a new flag with 49 stars before dawn, not knowing if the new state was to be Cuba, Alaska or Hawaii. Each of these territories took over the stage in scenes of colorful dance and song.

Duwayne Bedwell was the sailor representing Hawaii as he sang "The Kling-Kling Bird." Fluttering snowflakes for the Alaskan scene were Marlene Muckenfuss, Esther Farrington and Jaylane Barkley, who were accompanied by vocalists singing "Snow." Playing the tuba for a line of Cuban girls in Cuba was Yuba (Bob Hinsch). Dance hall girls in large plume hats were on each arm of a miner as part of the Alaskan scene.

... in Original Revue, "So What!"

Following these numbers there were interruptions, which included a flighty auntie, a bothersome kid brother, spying blonde, tight-lipped burglar, towering policeman, a music-loving studio crowd, a lunch-packing mother, a helpful elevator boy, and bewildered scrubwomen, until the scene was eliminated by a fire alarm which turned out to be false.

Playing the part of the designers were Dick (Norman Jannasch), Tom (Tom Barnhardt) and Mary (Diane Crispin) in upper right picture.

Tom dreamed of his ideal blonde as the stage was transformed into a scene from "The Princess of Pure Deight," pictured at the upper left. The dreams continued as the ideal blonde (Lucille Nall) sang and Katherine Lehman played on the violin "The Land Of My Own Romance."

The scrubwomen entered into Mary's dream. The other part of Mary's dream is shown below at the right where Senator Flagpole chooses the winning design.

However, all dreams were interrupted by the news broadcast announcing that there was not to be a 49th star. "Well, so what!" shout the designers as the entire cast joins in the finale. "So What!"

Latin Club Plans Floralia

WHENEVER SPRING IS in the air, the Latin Club always makes preparations for the annual festival, the Floralia. On this day, flowers are placed in all rooms in the building. Also a special memorial of flowers adorns the soldiers plaque, and memorial bouquets are sent to homes of Latin Club members who have died and to teachers who have had deaths in their families in the last year.

This year as an added feature the members fixed a huge "R" formed with flowers as shown at the lower left. Bob Wright helped design the "R."

During Christmas vacation, the Club held a party at a club member's home and later in the year held a paper drive. Besides this, a trip to Chicago was planned and a tea was sponsored for Latin students of other South Bend schools.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Elizabeth Noble, the club meets each week to have a business meeting and special programs. Officers working together with Miss Noble are pictured at the upper left: standing, Beverly Stroupe, assistant treasurer, and Louise Willis, secretary; seated, John Campbell, treasurer, Diane Crispin, 1st vice-president, Roger Gerkin, president, and Muriel Keiser, 2nd vice-president.

History of the Class of '48 in Review

IN THE LAST YEAR of high school, Seniors always look back upon the happy days spent at Riley and re-live all memories once shared with fellow classmates. The end of this phase of life, however, did not seem so close to the Seniors in fall. Robert Laven took over the reins of the class to lead his fellow students through the last semesters.

Not long after, the first big class party, "The Wishbone Wobble," was held. As the title suggests, it came close to Thanksgiving. Senior rings arrived about the time DeGroff was snapping pictures for the Hoosier Poet. Under the sponsorship of the class, the original revue "So What!" appeared on Riley's stage for four consecutive days.

The first sign that time had slipped by was evident when a portion of the class left in January, without ceremony, to end their high school careers.

Only a small fraction of the class could look back to the time they entered Riley as eighth graders, and a few more could remember those freshman days. When the students became sophomores, the class of '48 began to take shape. For the first time class officers were elected with Andrew Hays serving as president. Class meetings followed for drawing up the constitution, and the "Sophomore Spree" soon appeared on the social calendar.

As Juniors under the leadership of President Carol Anderson, the class continued to expand and become more prominent in all features of school life. For the title of the class dance in the late fall the students chose "Pilgrims Prance."

All dreams of the past faded with the reality of the close of senior life at hand. Stepping forth in the limelight were the all important occasions of Sears Day, Senior Assembly, Prom, Senior Tea, Baccalaureate, final exams, Commencement, the '48 Hoosier Poet and those last report cards. The end had come and now each and every member of the class of '48 prepared to enter a new phase of life.

Typical Scenes of Senior Life

BEING SENIORS many of the students participate in the various organizations and activities. Taking part in all the fun and gaiety, they also do their share in providing the entertainment.

Above are four photos which are typical of senior life. On the left in the top picture is Mrs. Brokaw's January senior home room as they are studying in the provided home room period.

At different times students are given opportunities to appear before the student body whether it be speaking, acting, or performing on a musical instrument. It may be in a group or as an individual. In particular in the picture at the above right, is Miss Edith Steele's choric reading group as it appeared in assembly.

The last picture on the lower right shows the Seniors garbed in formal dress for their mid-winter prom at the Indiana Club.

SPRING CLEANING DAY for the Seniors has arrived. For them to open a locker and glance through all the old papers and books brings back tender memories of some fleeting moments in a class room.

Now, all of those old papers are thrown away and those books returned. The lockers stand empty and isolated waiting for the next crop of students to fill them.

The Seniors have sported their caps and gowns and received their diplomas. For them, high school days are past.

Riley Bowl Becomes Spring Playground

THE SHARP CRACK of a hit ball and flashing feet over the cinder path along with clapping and sharp shouts from onlookers dominate the fresh air of spring that covers the playing field behind Riley High School. Students are eager and glad to get out of doors and watch competitive action from the long green banks that give a grandstand view of the sporting activities.

Baseball and track, which for many years sat by the roadside as minor sports are rapidly finding their deserving spot in the sport light at Riley.

"Spike" Kelley's baseball squad, bolstered by nine returning lettermen, was held up because of cold stormy weather at the beginning of the season. Marchbank and Hankins combined with Cira and Pamachena to form the batteries while Laven, Cherone, Voynovich and Nagy comprised the infield. Bellairs, Seybert and Whitmer roamed the outfield to complete the list of capable baseball competitors in this northern section of the state.

Colorful Greg Parker organized a varsity reserve baseball team in order that up and coming ball players could gain the experience needed for varsity action.

An exceptionally fine group of freshmen and eighth graders compose A. B. Meyer's baseball C

Team. Denny Hartman and Orville Walters are the pitchers that are depended upon regularly, while Lefty Bob Cira is a standout on first base. Bobby Driggs, George Lambert and Jim Bradfield are the remaining regulars that launched a successful season.

Track received its boost here at Riley when Wayne Wakefield's thinly clad won the sectional and traveled to Indianapolis for the state competition at the end of the regular season last year.

Big Bill Duffy broke the school shot-put mark by a 50' 6" throw in the opening meet of the season as Roy Whiteman, a junior, and Mark McCoy, a sophomore, proved to be promising in the distance, the 880 and the mile run.

Bert Anson and his prospective Jack Kramers, took the courts this spring with high expectations and an extremely rough schedule. Senior Don Beyer leads the stalwarts, followed by Don Natharius, Stuart Hanson, Bob and Dick Seese and Jack Roberts.

In golf, Bill Stout and Dick Marquess led the Riley linkmen in the second round of their schedule during the warm spring months. Lora Overholser, captain and third man of the squad, made up the basic trio that Coach Joe Shafer depended upon both in the fall and recent schedule.

Student Council Promotes Friendship

MADCHENREAL GYMNASIUM AND AKADEMISCHE GYMNASIUM — these two names have now become a part of each Riley High School student. Madchenreal Gymnasium in Vienna, a girl's high school, and Academic gymnasium in Vienna, a boy's high school, were adopted by Riley under the sponsorship of the Student Council.

An experiment in international friendship, this adoption came about through Miss Gretta Sereny of Vienna. During the 1946-1947 school year, Miss Sereny after a tour of Austria described the destructions suffered by its people and of their efforts to reestablish their schools.

Soon after this the Student Council voted to "adopt" an Austrian school. The council group is shown below in session. Arrangements were made and two schools were selected. By last spring the student body had collected 750 pounds of articles such as non-perishable foods, fats, soaps and school supplies. When school opened this fall the first packet of letters from the Vienna pupils greeted us.

From these letters we have learned of conditions in Austrian schools.

Student Council members have worked long and hard under the leadership of Carol Anderson, president, and Mr. Claude Wolfram, sponsor, to carry out several projects of gifts for the two schools. Pictured with Carol Anderson, center, are Carolyn Hays and Frances Parker. A clothing drive has been one of the major campaigns to aid the two schools. Again this year our Student Council held a "Food for Austria" drive.

Came the second semester and our "adopted friends" sent a package in token of friendship. Among the articles were hand-made handkerchiefs, sketches, and pictures of Austrian objects and scenes.

Backed by the student body, the Student Council plans to carry this worthwhile project on for a long time to come to do a small part in aiding relations between two countries and to secure many lasting friends from the Madchenreal Gymnasium and the Akademische Gymnasium.

Strengthening Ties Between Austria and America

FRANZ AND INGE, we've taken you through the Riley year of 1947-48 pointing out the outstanding events which were high-lights of the different seasons. By meeting the members of the faculty and the students, you may better understand the spirit which prevails at Riley.

In acquainting you with our courses of study and various organizations, you have remained quietly in the background learning how a typical American high school operates. This knowledge you will be able to carry back to your fellow classmates, thus creating a better understanding between the Austrian schools and Riley High School in the United States of America.

Advertising Section

FRANZ AND INGE, South Bend has a population of 120,000. Riley (with an enrollment of 1,355), Central, John Adams and Washington are the four high schools which accommodate the high school students of the city. Riley students as a group spend many hundreds of dollars in South Bend stores, located in the section surrounding the school and in other business districts in all parts of the city.

Some of these business places are pictured, while others are indicated by telling something of the nature of the business or giving the location. They serve their purposes in many ways. Riley students buy their clothing and supplies in them; fathers earn a living for their families through them; mothers do their marketing for the family table in some of them; and after school, dances, or the games Riley friends gather in the refreshment centers to get a bite to eat and talk over good times.

CONGRATULATIONS, Seniors on completion of your high school studies. Through your efforts and with the guidance of the Riley faculty, you have a good foundation for a well balanced life in your adult endeavors.

All of us at Buschbaum's Pharmacy join in wishing you a happy and successful future. We shall be glad to serve you for . . .

The Security Loan Company, located at 212 Sherland Building, South Bend, Indiana, through the courtesy of their manager, E. B. Murphy (a Riley patron), has presented by these picture illustrations, a classroom for Riley High School Students on the subject of a small loan office in operation.

A small loan office has been recognized by the various social and welfare agencies as an essential need in every community for the purpose of playing an integral part in the field of consumer credit. It renders a specialized service in solving the family emergencies requiring money without delay.

Each year, the Security Loan Company, who have operated a small loan office in this community for many years, see the necessity of offering high school students the opportunity of illustrated education on small loan office operating principles.

An invitation is extended to all Riley patrons, the teaching staff, and especially all Riley students, to visit our classroom offices and become more familiar with the small loan business. "Our time is your time."

THANK YOU

Transferring creative ideas to the printed page requires the full co-operation of the production staff, the artists and photographers, the compositors, the engravers and the printers.

It is in the PILOT tradition to bring to its part of this task the skill, enthusiasm, and experience which are essential to complete satisfaction in the finished job.

We compliment the staff of the Hoosier Poet, and all of those who contributed to this fine production.

It was a pleasure to work with them. We appreciated the opportunity, and would appreciate an opportunity to work with you in the solution of your engraving problems.
